

Key facts about Corvinus School of Management

Executive MBA

2 years, weekend format
Middle-level managers,
av. age 35; 35% foreign International week incl.

Full-time MBA

2 years, full-time master
Junior level talents with
2-6 years work exposure
90% foreign students

Company Programs

Customized Mini MBA
Short modules for executives
Blended learning projects

International Residencies

One-week modules at Corvinus for top-ranked international MBA/EMBA programs

- The Management Development Center of our university pioneered with its bi-lingual MBA program in cooperation with London Business School in 1992 which was one of the first MBA programs in Eastern Europe that followed the US-based MBA methodology.
- Since 2005, all MBA programs at Corvinus University are fully in English. All MBA programs are limited to students with college or university degree and significant work experience.
- The average annual salary of the entering students of the weekend-format Corvinus Executive MBA program is around EUR 38,300, graduates reported 34% salary increase in average, one year after graduation.¹
- International student body: 52.5% of recent Corvinus MBA/EMBA students have foreign nationality, representing 22 countries from four continents.
- The average age of the current EMBA students is 34.5 years, representing 9 years post-degree work exposure, including 4.5 years leadership experience in average. The average age of the current Full-time MBA students is 28 years, representing 3.5 years post-degree work exposure, including 1 year leadership experience in average.
- In 2009, the Executive MBA program was accredited by EFMD, one of the three international accreditation bodies. After the successful re-accreditation in 2012, the Corvinus EMBA program is still the only MBA program in the country with the EFMD-EPAS international accreditation.²
- According to the recent QS MBA ranking, Corvinus School of Management is ranked #27 in Europe, in a list of 60 top European business schools.³
- In 2013, Best-masters.com ranked the Corvinus Executive MBA as high as #3 in Eastern Europe⁴, while the Full-time MBA program ranks #2 in Eastern Europe.⁵
- Eduniversal granted the 4 palmes (labeled as “internationally known top business school”) to the Corvinus Faculty of Business Administration, ranked #72 among 191 four-palms school, indicating one of the best results from the Eastern European region.⁶
- Corvinus School of Management is provider of customized Mini MBA programs for companies like OTP Bank or the Hungarian Post.
- Corvinus School of Management organizes the region-specific MBA/EMBA modules for top ranked international MBA programs like the Richmond University MBA (USA), Louvain School of Management (Belgium), or St. Gallen University (Switzerland).
- The advisory board of Corvinus School of Management, the Curatorium, consists of around 40 business leaders from the region (40% non-Hungarian). The Curatorium annually discusses the companies’ needs and helps to further develop our school and programs.

¹ EPAS Self-Assessment Report, January 2012, Corvinus School of Management.

² <http://www.efmd.org/index.php/accreditation-main/epas/epas-accredited-programmes>

³ <http://www.topmba.com/mba-rankings/region/europe/2014>

⁴ <http://www.best-masters.com/ranking-master-executive-mba-in-eastern-europe.html>

⁵ <http://www.best-masters.com/ranking-master-mba-full-time-in-eastern-europe.html>

⁶ <http://www.eduniversal-ranking.com/business-school-university-ranking-in-hungary.html>